

Acquisition of the Platinum Elite includes unparalleled support for training, education, service and technical support needs.

Exceptional Support

Quality Installation and Operator Training

- All systems include installation by Medical Graphics Field Engineers
- Professional operator training is provided at the Medical Graphics Training Center
- Classes are accredited for CRCEs or CEUs

Education Programs for Cardiorespiratory Diagnostics

Medical Graphics provides ongoing clinical and technical support including:

- Advanced Cardiorespiratory Seminar Series approved for 23 CRCE credits from AARC
- Biomedical engineer training
- Educational monographs and technical notes
- Clinical support materials

Worry-Free Operation

Medical Graphics Technical Support sets the standard for the industry with:

- Telephone application support
- Regional service engineers
- Flexible UltraCare service protection plans
- Available premium services including internet-based live remote diagnostic service, data security, networking support and specialized options

